PASSING OF JOE MARSH

It is with great sadness that we record the passing of J.A.(Joe) Marsh.

Joe was awarded Springbok Colours in 1972, and had a colourful bowling career.

He won a silver medal in the triples at the 1972 World Outdoor Bowls Championship in Worthing with Edgar Davey and Doug Watson. He also won a silver medal in the team event (Leonard Trophy). He represented Western Transvaal, Southern Transvaal and Near East Rand Bowling Association (NERBA) with distinction.

Joe is survived by his wife Mavis, son John, daughter Merle and their families.

He will be fondly remembered by his catch phrase "Take Grass"

May his soul rest in peace.
